*THE 1968 ANNUAL MEETING - A CONFERENCE YOU WON'T WANT TO MISS
OCTOBER 16 - 19 - HOTEL JUNG, NEW ORLEANS*

MAN AND HIS WORLDS

October 16-19, 1968, the NCFR will celebrate its thirtieth year as it meets in New Orleans to discuss Man and His Worlds. ELIZABETH FORCE, NCFR President-elect, program chairman for this conference, has obtained three outstanding plenary speakers. The Section Chairmen, RICHARD KLEMER, ROSE SOMERVILLE, EDWARD DAGER, and BLAINE PORTER, have their programs well under way. DAVID FULCOMER promises stimulating Round Table Discussions. CHARLES SUTTON is setting up an excellent Book Exhibit. The preliminary program will be detailed in the May Newsletter. Watch for it!!

The conference will be held at the Jung Hotel, 1500 Canal Street. We quote from their brochure: "Fabulous, gay old New Orleans provides mystery and intrigue of another era at every turn! The famed French Quarter, 70 blocks of Old World Charm, is a mecca for poets, painters, writers, and artists. Here you'll find Bourbon Street, birthplace of Dixieland Jazz, center of New Orleans' night life...the French Market, providing the ingredients for New Orleans' famed cuisine...quaint shops with exquisite wrought-iron balconies, tunnelled carriageways, lavish flower gardens. New Orleans' famous Ponchartrain Beach, Canal Street, St. Louis Cathedral and Jackson Square and stately antebellum mansions are each a "must," too, on your visit to America's Most Interesting City."

ELECTION TIME IS HERE

ELEANORE LUCKEY, Nominating Committee Chairman, and her committee consisting of ROBERT BELL, JEROLD HEISS, GERALD LESLIE, JOSEPH ROWLAND, and AARON RUTLEDGE, have prepared another splendid slate of candidates for your consideration. Biographical data and a ballot are enclosed. Please return by May 1st in the accompanying envelope. (Ballot is on pages 11-12).

THE OSBORNE AWARD

The Osborne Award will be presented at the Annual Meeting in October. Nominations may be made on the enclosed form, which cites criteria to be considered. Your help in selecting the recipient of this Award will be appreciated. Nominations should be submitted to GERHARD NEUBECK, Osborne Award Chairman, University of Minnesota.

NCFR MEMBERS ARE AVAILABLE TO HELP WITH WORKSHOPS

BLAINE R. PORTER, Dean, College of Family Living, 1206 SFLC, Brigham Young University, Provo, Utah 84601, is chairman of NCFR's Special Committee on Family Life Education, whose particular concern is the development of good workshops at various colleges and universities.
