1976 NCFR ANNUAL MEETING ROOSEVELT HOTEL, NEW YORK CITY OCTOBER 19-23 THEME: FAMILY AND SEX ROLES

LOCAL ARRANGEMENTS: IMPORTANT!

MEA CULPA

I apologize for not having read the copy before the travel brochure was printed, and I can see that I wasn't communicating too clearly. I'll try to make up for it now in this report.

This year hotel reservations are being made through the New York office of NCFR, Room 503, 136 East 57th Street, New York, New York 10022.

Rates at the Roosevelt are:

$27.00 single

$40.00 for twin, triple, or four in a room
(Yes--we'll try to find roommates if you ask us.) One night's deposit is required.

ABOUT THE TOURS

One bus will make the tour of New York City as planned by the Tri-State committee each day (no museums, churches, etc., only New York as people live it.) When you reserve your tour, specify the day--Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday. This is Tour B.

The tour of Harlem will be Friday. The tour of Jewish New York will be Wednesday.

The visit to the U.N. is Thursday. Luncheon reservations should be made early by contacting me directly. (See March Newsletter.)

Agency tours are not yet definite. Changes in staffing, hours, and such due to budget cuts have made it no time for agencies to think of entertaining guests. By October we hope all will be settled and the planned visits firmly arranged.

All NCFR-arranged tours will be approximately 50% cheaper than regular tours. There will be a desk near the NCFR registration area specifically for tours, etc. Be sure to stop and make final arrangements.

GROUP FLIGHTS

It would appear that some members have recently changed their mailing addresses and have not received the brochure for travel arrangements. For those of you who have not received a copy please contact: NCFR, Room #503, 136 East 57th Street, New York, New York 10022.

Some members have sent in their deposits for the Hotel Registration only and have not indicated on their reservation form their transportation requirements.

Group fare rates not listed in the brochure are available, and we strongly urge that group travel arrangements be made through our New York office. Even less expensive are the excursion or tour basing rates listed in the brochure. Those using excursion rates must be in New York City a minimum of seven days. To qualify for a Tour Basing Fare, you must purchase an Airlines Industry Tour Package consisting of hotel accommodations and/or sight-seeing costing a minimum of $65.00.

Please add the following air fares to your list included in the brochure: (Write if you need other departure points.)

MINNEAPOLIS: First Class-$294.00; Coach/Economy-$196.00; Excursion-$167.00; Tour Basing--; Group-$157.00

ST. LOUIS: First Class-$268.00; Coach/Economy-$178.00; Excursion-$142.00; Tour Basing--; Group-$109.26

Group fare rates are based on a minimum of 10 participating passengers. Should there be more than 10, a lower existing group air fare would be used. When confirming air space using group rates, the final cost of the air fare will be determined by the number of participants taking advantage of this service.

The brochure erroneously stated that full payments for air fare must be received by August 1st. Please send in your reservations as soon as possible, but they must be received by the New York office no later than September 15th.

CORRECTION

The price shown in the brochure for the New York Special Events - 7 days and 6 nights should read $130.50 per person in double occupancy and $172.50 for single occupancy rather than $250.50 per person.

PLACES TO VISIT

Since my words on dining out in New York, a remarkable new restaurant has opened. Called Windows in the World, it is atop the World Trade Center, 102 stories up. The view is magnificent, and the restaurant unique. It is a private club at lunch, and open to the public from 5:00 p.m. for dinner. By all means, put it on your must do list, and make your reservations as soon as you come to town, or even before by mail.

In your registration folders will be the other information you'll need to do the city up right--walks, restaurants, hairdressers, shopping and such. The travel desk in the NCFR registration area will help you in every way you may require assistance.

If you want other information, or clarification about just anything, please write to me at NCFR, Room 503, 136 East 57th Street, New York City 10022, and I'll respond as promptly and as well as I can. If I've confused you, I ought to unconfuse you.

See you in the Big Apple,
Norma Newmark, Local Arrangements Chairperson

NCFR Post-Conference Workshop . . .

INTEGRATING COMMUNICATION SKILLS INTO FUNCTIONAL MARRIAGE AND FAMILY COURSES with Jim Maddock, Ph.D. and Sherod Miller, Ph.D.

This workshop is designed to equip teachers with a classroom model for teaching interpersonal communication skills for enriching significant relationships to students in functional marriage and family courses. The material presented may be used as a supplementary unit or an entire course.

The workshop will be based on the Minnesota Couples Communication Program which has been adapted for use in the classroom. There will be two sections. The basic section is for people unfamiliar with the frameworks, processes and skills in MCCP. The advanced section will review frameworks and skills, and add additional cognitive frameworks and classroom exercises which interlock communication skills with relationship dynamics. Both sessions will be oriented to the classroom setting. All participants will receive a set of instructional materials upon which to base their teaching program.

American Airlines

Dear Conference Registrant,

Welcome to New York City and the Annual Meeting of the NATIONAL COUNCIL ON FAMILY RELATIONS, October, 1976. The meeting dates are Wednesday, October 20th, through Sunday, October 24th, but the TRI-STATE COUNCIL, as the local arrangements committee, has planned a full week of activities. New York abounds in interesting events every day, and, in addition, the Bicentennial makes for even more activity and more choices.

New York is alive and bustling. Come for a full week, and each day will be a full day. The Roosevelt Hotel, 45th Street and Madison Avenue, is offering its very, very special low rates for the entire week. There will be planned tours, walks, dinners, and anything you ask us to arrange in advance. We have also prepared a special Pre-Convention Bicentennial Tour of Boston. Details for this are outlined within this brochure.

We urge you to order your opera and theatre tickets early, and to sign up for the tours offered. All excursions are limited in size (everyone can then enjoy the best side of togetherness).

American Airlines will be offering the best selection of special fares from your home city to New York, which will allow you the benefit of a saving. If you are traveling as a member of a group (we will organize the group), you will be offered the lowest possible air fare.

Mail your application now, together with your $100 deposit check. Full payments must be received by September 15th. All deposits are refundable if a letter of cancellation is received at least 8 weeks prior to departure.

SEE YOU HERE...I'm certain your visit to the "BIG APPLE" and the 1976 Convention will be memorable.
