Chillysmith Farm

A Film by Mark and Dan Jury

55 minutes color 16mm

Sale: $750 Rent: $75.

Video-cassette: inquire for prices

CHILLYSMITH FARM was inspired by the award-winning book Gramp, which recounted a family's intergenerational experience with aging and death. The film continues the story with Nan, a delightful character, presenting an eloquent example of how to live one's life - and how to die. Later, the forthcoming birth of a child forces the family to examine the changes in attitudes that are taking place; the result of being intimately involved with Nan and Gramp. The film is a remarkable ten-year documentation of a family confronting stereotypes and shibboleths, as they grapple with old problems while searching for new answers.

Nicholas and the Baby

A Twenty-Three Minute, 16mm Film with Study Guide For Children and Parents

"A significant contribution to early childhood education. The format is exceptional. This film should be required viewing for educators." Selection Committee's Comments, The National Council on Family Relations

"...but above it is beauty and humanity that makes it absorbing to any human being - no matter what their age." Dr. Jerome Bruner, New School for Social Research

"The film is a charming, realistic story about a family expecting their second child." The Rocky Mountain News

Through the humor and warmth of the child's perspective, this unique film provides a gentle way of introducing parents to the perspectives and questions of children and introducing children from 4-12 to the facts and feelings involved with the birth of a sibling. Enriched by an animated sequence on fetal development, the music of the Carl Orff Schulwerk Society and a detailed Parent Teacher Study Guide, Nicholas and the Baby sensitively portrays all the excitement and drama of a family's awaited pregnancy, labor and birth. The film is a valuable educational tool, providing information and insight while stimulating open discussion between parents and children.
