General Information

Welcome to the 59th Annual Conference!

This program booklet is the only copy you will receive. Bring it with you to the Conference. Additional copies will be sold at the Conference registration desk for $3.

Conference Registration

Everyone attending the Conference needs to stop at the Conference registration desk, including those who have pre-registered by mail. Packets, name badges, and tickets for special events will be available there.

YOU MUST BE REGISTERED, AND YOUR NAME BADGE MUST BE WORN AT ALL TIMES DURING THE CONFERENCE. IT IS YOUR ADMISSION TO SESSIONS. If you do not have your badge, you will not be allowed to enter. Special name badges are available for those attending one session only.

Program Overview

The program is arranged in sections:

- Page 3 Table of Contents and session information.
- Page 4 General Conference information: hotel, travel, Employment Matching Service, hospitality room.
- Page 10 Pre-conference workshops: sessions prior to the conference. Additional fees are charged.
- Page 13 Conference program schedule: a daily time schedule for all program events.
- Page 47 Post-conference workshops: workshops held at the conclusion of the regular Conference.
- Page 48 NCFR Board and committee meetings: a schedule for members of NCFR committees and the Board of Directors.
- Page 53 People who work behind the scenes at NCFR: members of the NCFR Board, Program Committee, Local Arrangements Committees, and NCFR staff. These people will be wearing colored ribbons on their name tags. Ask them for help.
- Page 61 Index to program participants: names and employers of program presenters.
- Page 77 Hotel registration information, and forms.

NCFR and Hyatt Regency Hotel Force Project - Bloodline Drive

Wounds from acts of wars and gang violence place heavy demands on Blood Centers. Conference attendees, teaming up with Hyatt Regency Milwaukee staff, are responding to this need by donating blood. Staff from the Blood Center of Greater Milwaukee are setting up a "Bloodline Center" in the Manager's Suite at the Hyatt on Tuesday, Nov. 17, from 8:00 am - 12:00 noon. Appointments will be in 15 minute intervals. If you are donating, plan to set aside one hour for the process. In order to give blood at the Conference you must not have donated blood for at least 8 weeks prior to that date. Bring a photo ID with you. Advance registration would be appreciated. Contact Jacqueline Haessly, CFLE, NCFR Local Arrangements Chair, at 2437 N. Grant Blvd., Milwaukee, WI 53210-2941. Phone: 414-445-9736.

Additional Learning Opportunities

The Hyatt Regency Milwaukee is providing a closed circuit channel during the NCFR Conference so that attendees may view some videos in their rooms. Award-winning videos from the 1998 NCFR Media Awards Competition will be shown. Check your registration packet, and a flyer in your room for the specific times and channel number.

A video on Board Policy Governance, by John Carver, will be shown on Friday, Nov. 13, and Monday, Nov. 16, from 8:00 - 10:00 pm. It will also be shown on Saturday, Nov. 14, and Sunday, Nov. 15, from 12:15 - 2:15 pm in the Hospitality Cafe.

Workshop attendees will join community leaders and families to address community violence from an intergenerational perspective. Intergenerational Dialogue, a strategy for community building and problem solving, helps community individuals and leaders to discover: 1) Each generation has a unique perspective on community problems and opportunities; and 2) all generations need to be involved in solving or creating community opportunities.

Introduction of Speaker: Hamilton I. McCubbin, CFLE

Presider: Judith A. Myers-Walls, CFLE, NCFR Program Vice-president

Dr. Adams will discuss Agenda 21: UN Program of Action for Sustainable Development program. According to Agenda 21, "Humanity stands at a defining moment in history. We are confronted with a perpetuation of disparities between and within nations, and the continuing deterioration of the ecosystems on which we depend. Integration of environment and development concerns will lead to improved living standards for all, better protected ecosystems, and a safer, more prosperous future. No nation can achieve this on its own; but together we can - in a global partnership for sustainable development."

Barbara Adams is Deputy Coordinator, UN Non-Governmental Liaison Service (UN-NGLS), UN Headquarters, New York. She is also a UNICEF consultant; and Executive Director, Manitoba Council for International Cooperation. She was Associate Director, Quaker United Nations Office, and worked with UN delegates, staff, and NGOs on issues of economic and social justice, women, peace, and human rights.

Vern L. Bengtson

Families and Aging at the Turn of the Century, Vern L. Bengtson

Presider: Alan Booth, Burgess Award Committee Selection Chair

Population aging has changed the structures and forms of family in industrialized societies. Inter-generational relationships may be more important in the 21st Century than they were in the 20th Century.

Vern Bengtson is AARP/Univ. Professor of Gerontology and Professor of Sociology, Univ. of Southern California. For over 25 years he has directed the Longitudinal Study of Four Generation Families at U.S.C., doing research on the sociology of the life course, socialization, ethnicity, and aging. His Spring 1997 sabbatical was spent as the Benjamin Meaker Visiting Professor at the Univ. of Bristol in England. Dr. Bengtson is a well-known writer, and has won several awards for his research in the field of gerontology. He is also past President of the Gerontological Society of America.

Throughout the day are several special sessions: 1. Gerhard Neufeldt Interviews Profile Now, 5:30 pm. 2. How to Submit Proposals for NGR Conferences featuring Judith A. Myers-Walls, GLE, Katherine E. ### Media and the Mind, David Walsh, Ph.D.

Sponsored by the NCFR Association of Councils

Presider: Anne M. Stanberry, CFLE

Dr. Walsh will link the impact of mass media with the latest research on children's brain development to show how and why media is influential in shaping attitudes and behavior. MediaQuotient, the first computerized media behavior survey, will be unveiled along with results from the first national norming sample.

David Walsh is President and founder of the Natl. Inst. on Media and the Family, a public health initiative. A noted psychologist, educator, author, and speaker, his award winning book, Selling Out America's Children, has been hailed as the first book to identify the full scope of media's influence on children as a public health issue. He is also one of a select group invited to Vice President Al Gore's national round table on "Media Effects on Families." He teaches at the Univ. of St. Thomas, and the Univ. of Minnesota.

Meet Your Colleagues at the 1999 NCFR Annual Conference!

Borders, Boundaries, and Beacons: Diverse Families in Dynamic Societies

November 10-15, 1999

Hyatt Regency Hotel, Irvine, California

Program Vice-president: Katherine R. Allen, CFLE, Virginia Tech

At the end of the 20th century, stratifications by race, class, gender, ethnicity, religion, sexuality, age, and physical ability continue to challenge those who work with and study families. Controversy abounds as some see the circumstances associated with global immigration as a threat to jobs and national identity, whereas others see the trend as a strength and a continuation of our historic ethnic and cultural diversity.

Family migrations based in religion, economics, and race as well as immigration of families to the United States and our neighbors create dynamic social relations in which families interact. Compared to a century ago, today's immigrants come primarily from Mexico, Latin America, the Philippines, India, Vietnam, and China. In the U.S., the focus on family and cultural diversity is particularly relevant in California where 25% of the state's residents are foreign-born.

The Conference will address contemporary and historical diversity across individuals, families, and cultures—nationally and internationally. We welcome bold and creative proposals that allow participants to expand their vision for research and practice about diverse families in dynamic societies.

Confirmed Plenary Speakers

Mary Catherine Bateson, Clarence Robinson Professor in Anthropology and English, George Mason University, Fairfax, VA and President, Institute for Intercultural Studies (founded by her mother, Margaret Mead, a former NCFR member). She will speak on intergenerational family legacies across time and space.

Lou Bellamy, Professor of Theatre Arts and Dance, University of Minnesota, and renowned artistic director of Penumbra Theatre Company in St. Paul, MN, a major regional African-American theatre. He will speak on experiences of African-Americans during the rural to urban migration in the early 20th century.

To be Announced: An authority on contemporary immigration issues affecting families, particularly in California.

Deadline for Abstract Applications - February 1, 1999

The Call for Abstracts and application form will be in the Conference Registration Packet, and also inserted in the December 1998 NCFR Report. Foreign and Canadian members will be sent the document in October.

For further information, call NCFR Toll free: 888-781-9331; Phone: 612-781-9331; Fax: 612-781-9348; E-mail: ncfr3989@ncfr.com or print from NCFR's Website: www.ncfr.com, beginning December 1, 1998.

SOCIOLOGY OF FAMILY

ANDERSON AND SABATELLI
Family Interaction: A Multigenerational Developmental Perspective, 2/e

Using a family systems and a multigenerational, developmental framework, this text highlights the challenges faced by contemporary families as they move through time. It offers a comprehensive overview of the major conceptual models that are used to understand the patterns and dynamics that operate in families, providing the reader with a fuller appreciation for the uniqueness of each family's pattern of interaction.

GENDER ISSUES

RENZETTI AND CURRAN
Women, Men, and Society, 4/e

Offering an analysis of gender inequality that addresses how sexism affects both men and women, the revision of this highly successful text maintains its emphasis on intersecting inequalities and shows how the consequences of gender inequality can be compounded by racism, social class inequality, ageism, and heterosexism.

WARD
A World Full of Women, 2/e

This ethnographic, cross-cultural approach to the study of women includes new theory, research, and ethnography about women's work in comparative cultures. Written by an anthropologist, this up-to-date and lively text is an excellent choice for a gender course.

FAMILY THERAPY

BROCK AND BARNARD
Procedures in Marriage and Family Therapy, 3/e

An excellent resource for students and clinicians, this text offers thorough instruction on how to handle the full range of situations encountered in everyday family practice. The third edition features significant new sections, including limiting risk, out-of-session work, and new effectiveness guidelines.

CARTER AND MCGOLDRICK
The Expanded Family Life Cycle: Individual, Family, and Social Perspectives, 3/e

This long-awaited revision features a holistic perspective on the human life cycle, encompassing issues such as gender, race, sexual orientation, procreation, marriage, divorce, addictive behaviors, and more. Completely updated, The Expanded Family Life Cycle also features increased attention to issues in the male life cycle.

NICHOLS
Inside Family Therapy: A Case Study in Family Healing

Designed to accompany any family therapy book, this casebook provides a detailed, first-person account of the process of family therapy from the counselor's perspective. Each major stage of the family life cycle is presented in a separate chapter, and important issues such as gender, ethnicity, and sexual orientation are integrated.

Family Life Education Life Span Framework Poster

Revised & Expanded

Later
Adulthood
Life Stage
Now Included

This attractive, two-color, laminated, 38" x 27" wall poster, based on the Certified Family Life Educator framework, describes nine major content and learning concepts for family life education programs over four life stages: childhood, adolescence, adulthood, and later adulthood – a total of 36 cells.

Latest revisions include the addition of later adulthood as a separate life stage and the incorporation of multi-culturalism, gender, and special needs throughout the framework. Ideal for curriculum design, program development, continuing education, classroom instruction, and program assessment. An excellent resource for those involved in family life education.

Non-member...$24.95

Family Life Education Life Span Framework Teaching Resources

Two outstanding teaching aids to accompany the framework poster.

Overhead Masters

Each cell of the Framework Poster has been reproduced as an individual master copy for making overhead transparencies – nine content areas within each of the four life stages for a total of 36 masters. An ideal classroom accompaniment for the FLE Framework Poster. CF9702 ISBN 0916174-55-7
CFLE/NCFR Member...$19.95 Non-member...$24.95

Handout Masters

Handout masters that can be reproduced for classroom use. Each page focuses on one of the nine content areas of the framework throughout the four life stages. For example, one handout page includes Parent Education and Guidance concepts for childhood, adolescence, adulthood, and later adulthood – a total of nine handouts masters. A perfect teaching aid for more in-depth discussion of the concept areas. CF9703 ISBN 0916174-56-5

Make the Most of the Conference

How to Prepare Before You Leave Home

Review the Printed Program Carefully

- Note all of the sessions you would like to attend. Highlight your "must sees." Be sure to bring your Printed Program with you to the Conference; additional copies cost $3.00.
- Rank the presentations you want to attend. Try to schedule Section membership and committee meetings as well as receptions/parties. Be sure to include appointments you want to make. Write your final choices on your Personal Schedule Planner in the pull-out section of this Program.

Make Networking Plans

- Ask your colleagues to introduce you to people you would like to meet.
- Prior to the Conference, schedule appointments with those people you would like to meet at the Conference. Read their books and articles for ease in conversing with them.
- Bring return address labels or print your name and address on a sheet of peel-off labels so that you can quickly attach them to sign-up lists and order cards.
- Bring along business cards to hand to exhibitors, presenters, and new friends.
- Pack copies of your resume for colleagues and the Employment Matching Service.
- The NCFR Conference offers a limited number of volunteer positions. Many student aides at NCFR Conferences have become committee members after this experience. If you work 8 hours, your Conference registration fee will be refunded after the Conference. Contact the NCFR office by September 1 to obtain a form, or print one from NCFR's Website at: www.ncfr.com.

- Register before the Conference so that you can review Program materials ahead of time.
- Remember - you must be registered and wear your name badge at all times to attend any session, including receptions and Section member meetings.

Miscellaneous Notes

- For emergencies, leave the telephone number of the hotel, your schedule, and NCFR's number with your family and colleagues.
- Select clothes that create the image you want to project at the Conference. This is particularly important if you are using the Employment Matching Service. Also include clothes for exercise, and all types of weather.
- Allow space in your luggage to bring home copies of papers, books, and flyers.

Promote Yourself: Use the Employment Matching Service

- The NCFR Employment Service lists job openings, candidate files, and provides space for interviews. Many universities and colleges use the Service area for initial interviews.

Tips for Using the Employment Matching Service

- Follow directions explicitly when preparing your materials.
- Bring a supply of resumes and business cards with you. You may find new openings in addition to those listed through the Employment Matching Service.
- Send your Employment Matching Service materials to NCFR before the Conference so that you are listed in the alphabetic files. Inform colleagues you are looking for a job; they may give your name to employers.

Be Assertive at the Conference

- Register at the Employment Matching Service on opening day and keep returning — new jobs are posted daily. Leave messages on the board for those you wish to contact, and keep checking. If there is no response to your notes, leave a room message or ask colleagues to help you find them, but keep trying!
- Remember that you are making an impression at all Conference events, sessions, receptions, and parties. Network, dress, and conduct yourself accordingly. Send thank you notes to all appropriate people.

Be An Active Participant in Conference Activities

- Attend all main sessions. The speakers are leaders in the family field.
- If you are attending with several colleagues, choose a variety of presentations so that you can cover more topics, and share information and handouts later.
- Take notes during the sessions and purchase the audio and/or video tapes. Tapes are an inexpensive way to review what you learned at the session and share with colleagues.
- Attend a variety of sessions: posters, papers, round tables. Each offers unique learning and networking experiences. Small informal sessions offer opportunities for interaction between presenters and the audience.
- Stay after sessions and introduce yourself to the speaker(s) — but be courteous of the speaker(s)' time.
- If sessions offer 3 or 4 papers, and only one is of interest to you, Conference etiquette allows you to quietly enter or leave a session between papers. If several presentations conflict, leave a business card for the author to contact you or to send a copy of the handout.

- Throughout a session, think of questions you may want to ask the speaker during the question/answer period. Don't ask questions that give the impression you weren't listening. Keep questions brief. Don't seize the stage for yourself and your own work.

- Watch the award-winning videos from the NCFR Media Awards on closed circuit tv. Check the schedule in your room when you arrive at the Conference.

Types of Conference Sessions

- If you are registered and wearing a name badge, you are free to attend any session listed, with the exception of the receptions sponsored by colleges/universities, NCFR Board and Committee meetings, Legacy Circle, and the CFLE reception. No advance reservations are required for sessions. During concurrent sessions, you choose which one to attend.

- Plenaries: General sessions attended by all registrants. Speakers focus in depth on a theme. No other sessions are scheduled during these sessions.

- Concurrent Section Sponsored Sessions: Each session has an overall theme. Three to four papers are presented during the time period. Some include audience discussion. Symposia/Workshop sessions have specific themes. A moderator leads the discussion, and a discussant relates the papers to each other.

- Posters: Presentations summarized in graphic form. Posters are grouped by subject. Authors are present to discuss their work, and may have handouts for you to take home.

- Round Tables: Informal discussion sessions with 1 or more leaders presenting a 10-15 minute overview of a specific topic. Round tables are limited to 10 participants per table on a first-come, first-serve basis.

- Focus Groups: Special topic groups that meet for an informal discussion of topics not central to existing Sections within NCFR. Everyone is welcome to attend.

Integrate With NCFR

- Attend the Orientation session for those who want to become involved in NCFR, Saturday, Nov. 14, 8:00 am. NCFR membership and NCFR Sections are excellent means of advancing your career, and establishing professional networks.

- Attend business and Section membership meetings. Your input is important and provides a way of becoming active in NCFR.

- Volunteer to help with Conference functions and other programs and committees. You benefit by working with key leaders.

Visit the Exhibits

- Exhibits, an integral part of the NCFR conference, provide one-stop shopping. Many publishers sell by mail and this may be your only chance to review their materials before buying.

- Check the Exhibits Directory carefully. Exhibitors include publishers, graduate schools, foundations, government agencies, and other companies providing services for academics and practitioners.

- Pick up Exhibit brochures and catalogues during the Conference, for ordering purposes. Exhibitors often offer Conference discounts, or sell their materials at reduced prices at the end of the Conference.

Take Advantage of Networking Opportunities

- Attend the Newcomers Reception on Saturday, Nov. 14, 9:00 am. Introduce yourself to other first-time attendees and meet the NCFR Board of Directors. Come to the President's Welcoming Reception on Saturday, Nov. 14, 9:00 pm. Meet President Greer Fox, her family; NCFR Executive Director Mary Jo Czapski, CFLE; NCFR Board members; and other NCFR members. Attend the Mentoring Open House on Saturday, Nov. 14, 7:30 pm and learn how to become involved in the Mentoring Program.

- Check name badges. They are coded for students or first-time Conference attendees. Suggest meeting other attendees for a snack or a meal.

- Be assertive. When you introduce yourself, have a brief 3-5 second explanation of the kind of work you do to help break the ice. Be a good listener!

- To find someone, leave messages in several places: the NCFR message board, the hotel front desk, or under a guest's door.

- Attend receptions and parties especially those sponsored by college departments.

- Use the central sitting areas. These are great places for people you know to introduce you to people they know.

- Exchange business cards when meeting new colleagues. Make notes on the back to remind yourself about significant information. Follow up with phone calls or notes after you return home.

- Share rooms. Staying with a group of people you know adds to the fun and lowers expenses. If you want to room with someone, but don't have a roommate, call the NCFR office.

- Stop in the Hospitality Cafe (Pere Marquette) and meet new people. Sign up for a "Conference Buddy," or sign up to go out with a group. Members of the Local Arrangements Committee will serve as your hosts. Participate in a pay your own way dinner with others.

Keep Physically Fit, Mentally Alert, and Safe

- Make sure you get enough rest during the Conference. Fatigue is predictable due to a combination of late evenings, presentations, dinners, parties, early sessions, and meetings.

- Don't skip meals. Try to eat a balanced diet. Take work-out gear. The hotel has indoor exercise equipment.

- Be safety-smart while at the conference. 1) Don't wear your name badge outside the Conference facility. 2) Stay in groups when walking outdoors. 3) When you are in your room, keep the door locked and the deadbolt engaged at all times. If someone comes to your door, use the peephole to see who it is and call the front desk or security if the person says that he/she is on the hotel staff to see if the visit is authorized. 4) Be alert when riding an elevator by yourself. 5) Leave valuables in hotel safe deposit boxes.

- Frequently check for messages at the Message Board. Call the hotel front desk for phone calls.

BOOKS ON Family Studies

CHILDREN AND HIV/AIDS

Edited by Gary Anderson, Constance Ryan, Susan Taylor-Brown, and Myra White-Gray

A resource for personnel within the child welfare field serving families whose lives are touched by HIV and AIDS. The contributors provide invaluable tools to help better serve the children and adolescents that the current epidemic so tragically affects.

0-7658-0488-3 (paper) 1999 271 pp. $22.95 (t)/£15.95

FAMILIES

Jane Howard

This compassionate, provocative volume makes us realize how our lives are interwoven both with the families we are born into and those we invent as we go through life.

0-7658-0468-9 (paper) 1998 282 pp. $24.95/£16.95

REWRITING THE SEXUAL CONTRACT

Edited by Geoff Dench

The contributors examine changing gender relationships, the consequences of these changes for family life and society generally, and the part the state should play in future developments.

0-7658-0466-2 (paper) 1998 310 pp. $24.95/£16.95

PERSONAL DISORDER AND FAMILY LIFE

Peter Lomas

A glimpse into the fascinating, often disturbing, intersection of psychoanalysis, psychotherapy, and the family at critical junctures. Brave, honest, and outspoken without a hint of intellectual pretension, a powerful book at the crest of new thinking on the family as an organizing premise.

1-56000-341-3 (cloth) 1997 227 pp. $32.95/£21.95

CHILD DAY CARE

Edited by Bruce Hershfield and Karen Selman

Child Day Care is an effort to define a nurturing environment that cultivates the physical, emotional, intellectual, and social potential of the child as it helps all family members pursue their own individual and collective goals.

National Council on Family Relations

National Council on Family Relations (NCFR) is a member-funded, nonprofit, nonpartisan organization.

NCFR Mission Statement:

The National Council on Family Relations provides a forum for family researchers, educators, and practitioners to share in the development and dissemination of knowledge about families and family relationships, establishes professional standards, and works to promote family well-being.

Founded in 1938, NCFR has a membership of over 4,200 professionals worldwide. It publishes two premier journals, Journal of Marriage and the Family and Family Relations and an impressive list of books and teaching materials.

The Annual Conference, held in November, provides a forum for discussion of family issues through plenary sessions, presentations of research and practice models, and dialogue among Conference attendees. Approximately 1,300 family professionals attend the Conference each year.

Objectives of the NCFR Annual Conference:

- To provide a means for family professionals to disseminate the latest research and policy information.
- To enable attendees to network with leading professionals in the family field.
- To share stimulating presentations by plenary speakers and leading family researchers.
- To obtain the latest family research through a variety of learning formats including plenaries, poster sessions, round tables, symposia, and papers.
- To offer attendees continuing education credits.
- To present the latest materials in the family field via the Exhibits.
- To give members of National Council on Family Relations an opportunity to learn more about the governance of the organization and provide opportunities for involvement in various Conference activities.
- To provide a forum for public policy discussion.
